World War

Where is the Kapa Kapa Track?

The Kapa Kapa Track is in the Southern Region of the country.

The Kapa Kapa Trail was used by American soldiers during World War II in 1942 under the command of General Douglas MacArthur during a battle to defeat the Japanese on the northern beaches.

Kapa Kapa Trail runs roughly parallel and 30 miles southeast of the Kokoda Track and passes through about 20 villages including Itokama, Arapara, Jaure, Natunga and Bofu.
