

World War

Where did the 39th Australian Infantry Battalion fired the Kokoda campaign's first shots?

It was at Awala village, in sight of Mount Lamington volcano, where the 39th Australian Infantry Battalion fired the Kokoda campaign's first shots. There is a plaque marking the spot at the village.

Unique solution ID: #1956

Author: Trevor

Last update: 2012-10-06 14:03