Who is James Segeyaro?

Rugby League player - James Segeyaro was born in Goroka and arrived in Queensland at the age of seven. The talented hooker was a great find for the Cowboys in 2011, making his debut in round three and finishing the year with 19 first-grade appearances and selection ahead of well-credentialed Aaron Payne for the qualifying final. He turned 21 in November 2011 and looks a likely Kumuls captain in years to come.
