

Aviation

Who was the first Papua New Guinean to be licensed to fly the Airbus A380, the largest passenger airliner in the world, for Emirates Airlines

Captain Timothy (Tico) Narara. Ironically, his elder brother Granger was the first Papua New Guinean to fly the A380 – which pilots call ‘The Beast’ – but his flight was only a trial test flight with Airbus.

Unique solution ID: #1046

Author: Trevor

Last update: 2011-07-29 10:26